

Library Festive Fundraiser

Sunday, November 3rd

10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Oakwood Community Centre, Victoria Harbour

This seasonal craft show is planned and hosted by the Marjorie Young Volunteer Association (MYVA) and library staff in support of Tay Township Public Library. Join us for a warm drink, check some names off your shopping list, or treat yourself!

Our special guest Mrs. Claus will be on the stage at 11 am for storytime and photo opportunities. We will have the prize draws and a book sale. Vendors include: face painting, optical, local authors, paintings, pottery, ornaments, crochet toys, handsewn and quilted items, jewelry, clothing, balloons, hair accessories, keychains, home decor, sublimation items, leggings, spices and dips, crystals and more!

We only have a couple tables left! If you are interested in becoming a vendor, the registration fee is $30 plus a donation to the prize table, all proceeds go to the MYVA group to support Library programs and special collections.

For more information please stop by a branch to pick up a copy of the registration form, call, or send us an email at library@taylibrary.ca
