Author Talk with Drew Hayden Taylor - Virtual

RSVP: Registration Form | Culture Alliance in

Date: December 11, 2024

Time: 6 PM

About the Event:

Join us on Wednesday, December 11 for a virtual author talk with Drew Hayden Taylor! Drew will share his inspiring journey from "a little kid on the Rez" to becoming a world-traveling ambassador for Indigenous literature. Hear firsthand about his experiences, insights, and the impact of Indigenous storytelling in contemporary culture. Attend virtually from your home, or join us at the Midland Public Library where we'll stream the event for a group viewing experience. Don't miss this chance to engage with one of Canada's most celebrated Indigenous voices!

Drew Hayden Taylor is an award-winning playwright, novelist, filmmaker, and journalist. Born, raised, and currently living on the Curve Lake First Nation in Ontario, he has done everything from performing stand-up comedy at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. to being Artistic Director of Canada's premiere Indigenous theatre company, Native Earth Performing Arts. At present, the third season of his award-winning documentary series , GOING NATIVE, is currently airing on APTN, and his 35th book, a novel titled COLD, was recently released by McLelland & Stewart.

This is a free event with limited spots available. If your plans change and you can't attend, please cancel as early as possible to open up a spot for someone else. Thank you for helping make this event accessible to everyone!
